

HERD'19

DELIVERING CHANGE

19-20 March 2019 | Bendigo

Herd 19 Program Highlights

Bendigo 19-20 March 2019 click here for full program

Keeping up the pace of change on farm	Craig Lister , Victorian dairy farmer, leading breeder of high genetic merit bulls and DataGene board member.
Leading change	Dr Matt Shaffer , CEO, DataGene.
The journey of on-farm change	Tim Jelbart , Jelbart Dairies, Gippsland, Victoria.
The unintended consequences of genomic selection	Dr Sijne Van der Beek , Manager Innovation CRV, Netherlands.
On the couch with science change-makers at AgriBio	Dr Jennie Pryce , Dr Mary Abdelsayed and Caeli Richardson .
Adapting to robotic technologies	Dr Nancy Charlton , DeLaval, Canada.
What's to come from MIR?	Dr Jennie Pryce , AgriBio.
On-farm change	Sam Simpson , dairy farmer Western Victoria.
Change leadership	Chris Murphy , Consultant.
Next gen go-getters	Panel discussion led by NSW beef farmer Lucinda Corrigan and Katunga dairy farmer and Paul Stammers .
How genomics has changed herd improvement	Prof Ben Hayes , University of Queensland.
On-farm research and adoption	Pauline Brightling , Harris Park and panel members Lucinda Corrigan , Josh Balcombe and Bill Wales .
Mastitis management without blanket dry cow treatment	Dr John Penry , Anexa FVC, animal health and vet services, NZ.
Changes in herd fertility	Dr Tim Humphris , InCalf Project Leader.
Social media changing communications	Farmer Tim , Canada.
Why social media matters	Lee-Ann Monks , DataGene's Communication and Marketing Manager, with panel members, Di Bowles , Greg Tiller , and Adam Sawell .